

THE FUTURE OF THERMAL GRIDS

25th-26th of November noon to noon // Online

SPONSORED SLOTS

We offer a limited number of exclusive slots for organisations or projects to present products, services or solutions at the international conference The Future of Thermal Grids.

Make a film, a presentation or show the result of your solution "IRL" online.

The slots will be shown during the conference but will also be available to all participants after the conference.

The slots are 10 minutes each.
